Sunday

As time went by, Joseph and his brothers grew old and died, but their descendants, the Israelites had many children and grandchildren.

A new Pharaoh of Egypt, who had never met Joseph was worried by how many Israelites there now were so he decided to make them slaves! But even though they were badly treated, their numbers kept on growing. So Pharaoh gave the order that all new Israelite baby boys must be thrown into the Nile River.

Now Jochebed, an Israelite mother and her husband Amram, gave birth to a baby boy and kept him hidden in the house so that the Egyptians wouldn't find him. But as he grew bigger, it was harder to keep him hidden, so when he was three months old, Jochebed made a basket of reeds, and waterproofed it. She put the baby in the basket and laid it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile River.

After a while the Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe in the river, she saw the basket among the reeds and sent her maid to get it for her. When the princess opened the basket the baby cried and she felt sorry for him; she knew he must be an Israelite child, and she decided to adopt him. The baby's sister had been watching, so she went to the princess and said, "Shall I go and find a woman to nurse the baby for you?" The princess agreed and the girl went and got her mother.

When Jochebed came, the princess said "Take this baby and nurse him for me, I will pay you for your help."

So Jochebed was able to keep her baby safe, for the next few years.

Later, when the boy was older, he went to live with the princess who named him Moses, which means, "I lifted him out of the water."

The 9th Commandment in Exodus 2017_{NIV} tells us not to covet. Fit the examples it gives into the yellow spaces in the grid.

What the commandment is really saying is that we must not covet anything, but as sinful human beings we will fail, we will covet what other's have from time to time, we will feel dissatisfaction with what we have and this will make us unhappy. What should we do when this happens?

Fill in the missing words to 1 John 1:9_{NIV} and then fit them into the remaining spaces in the grid.

Satan made things hard for the Israelites and he will try and make things hard for you too.

Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy,

He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour. Stand firm against him, and in your faith.

Cross out the things that Satan might try to do to you, or try to make you do and tick the things God would make happen.

Monday

Moses went from being a poor slave's child to being the son of the princess; the heir to Egypt's throne! From what was probably a humble, small, one-room house - to the palace of the Pharaoh! From learning as a young child at his mother's knee, the promises of God - to having the best tutors and access to all the learning of the mighty Egyptians! From having virtually nothing - to having everything! What a contrast.

What about you? Look at your answers from Sabbath. Where would your family and home sit on the scale?

Like a Slave - - - - - Like a Prince

Now ask your parents where they think you are on the scale, and if you have grandparents nearby ask them as well.

Do you think you live like a slave but your parents think you live like a prince?

It is all too common for people to feel like they don't have enough. In fact millions of people around the world are saying, "If only I had more money, I would be happy," or "If only I had a new car," or "a new phone," or something else. And when they get their new whatever they do feel happy - for a while. But then they start to think "If only I had a different house," or "a new bike," or something else again...

The happiness that comes from new possessions and new achievements does not last. The only happiness that lasts is the happiness from God and we should also include peace, joy and contentment.

Satan was doing everything he could to make life hard for God's people. Here are some of the things he arranged. Find the underlined words.

- Satan made the new Pharaoh think of making them slaves.
- Satan made their slave masters cruel and mean.
- Satan suggested that the baby boys should be thrown in the river.

But no matter what Satan did, there were more and more Israelites because God was looking after them.

Why do you think God didn't keep Moses hidden?

Help the princess find the basket.

Wednesday

Moses went from being the child of a poor slave's child to having all the riches of Egypt; from a hard life of work, to an easy life with slaves to work for him. Which life do you think you would have preferred? People often worry about not having enough money.

What does Matthew 6:31 NIV, NLT or ISV say we should not do because God knows what we need? (9 down)

In Philippians 4:11, 12, Paul said he had learned to be _____ (4a) with whatever he had; whether it was almost nothing or plenty.

David wrote in Psalm 37:16_{NLT}, "Better to be godly and have _____ (2d) than to be evil and rich."

Hebrews 13:5_{NIV} actually warns about the desire for more money saying, "Keep you lives free from the love of _____ (10a) and be content with what you have, because God has said, "Never will I _____ (7a) you; never will I _____ (3d) you."

Wise King Solomon even observed it saying in Ecclesiastes 5:10_{NIV}, "Whoever loves money never has _____ (8a); whoever loves _____ (5d) is never _____ (1d) with their income."

Instead of worrying and wanting more to make us happy, we should follow the advice of my favourite verse, Philippians 4:6, 7_{NLT} "Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank Him for all He has done. Then you will experience God's _____ (6d), which exceeds anything we can understand."
