

Summary: The people complain and God makes water come from the rock. Moses holds up his hands while they fight the Amalekites. Jethro advises Moses to organise leaders among the people so he is free for important matters.

Read Before: Exodus 17; 18; Patriarchs and Prophets 297-301; Bible story V2 146-150

Aim: The Israelites needed to learn to trust God for their needs; we can trust God for our needs.

1. What do I already know? ☐ Listen / Talk ☒ See ☐ Do

Think of two laws or rules from: school, church, home and Australia

2. Tell story / give facts. ☐ Listen / Talk ☒ See ☐ Do

Tell story with felts, or whiteboard, or adults reading different parts from the Bible

Say: The Ten Commandments can be summarised by Luke 10:27

Amazing Adventures shown on 3ABN used two slices of bread and a piece of cheese to explain that a soul = body + breath of life.

3. Review / how does it apply today? ☐ Listen / Talk ☐ See ☒ Do

Sanctuary book: Ten Commandments

4. What can this become / what can we do? ☒ Listen / Talk ☐ See ☒ Do

Discuss how laws and rules help keep us safe and happy.

Optional Scenarios: Assign groups to the last 6 Commandments – work out a little skit showing how someone is hurt when someone breaks the commandment.
