

The Walls

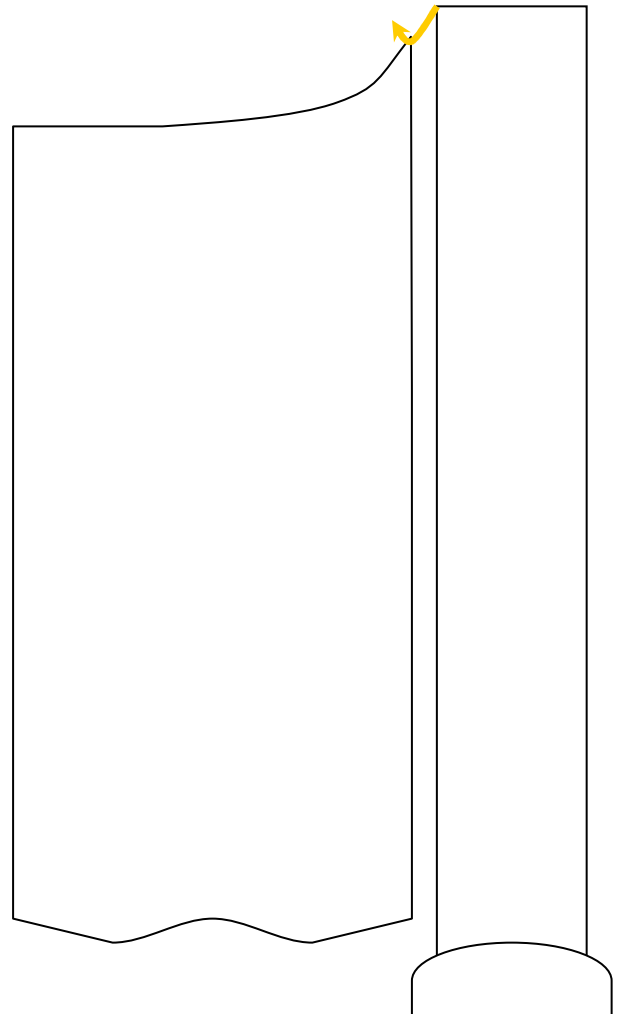

The wall panels were made from Acacia wood covered in gold and each panel had 2 silver bases. There were 20 panels along each of the long sides, and 8 across the back of the Sanctuary. Exodus 36:20-34

The walls represent Jesus

The wood shows that Jesus became a human Gold shows that Jesus was also God

Four pillars held the curtain in the middle of the Sanctuary, they were made from acacia wood covered in gold and had silver bases. Exodus 36:36

Five pillars held the curtain at the front of the Sanctuary; they were also acacia wood covered with gold, but they had bronze bases.

Exodus 36:37, 38

The curtains were blue, purple and red, with designs sewn into them, possibly of angels.

They were attached to the pillars by golden hooks. Exodus 36:35, 37

The Roof

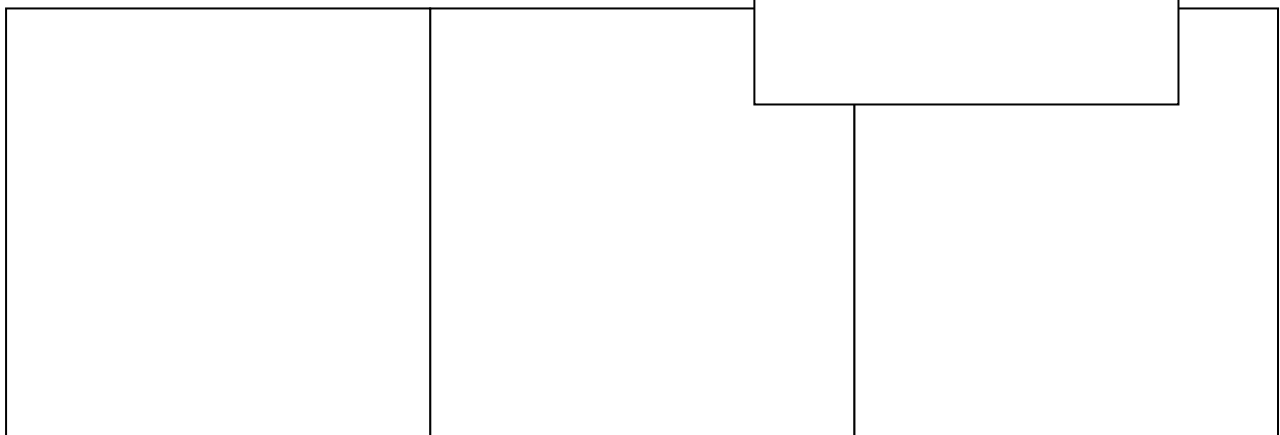

The coverings of the Sanctuary are found in Exodus 36:8, 14, 19

The outside layer was leather.

The next layer was ram skins, dyed red.

Then a layer of goats
hair, dyed white.

The inside layer was like the curtains; blue, purple and red.

Blue for the law

Purple for royalty

Red for sacrifice
