

The Day of Atonement

This special service happened once a year; the Israelites prepared by cleaning their camp and spending time in prayer confessing their sins to God.

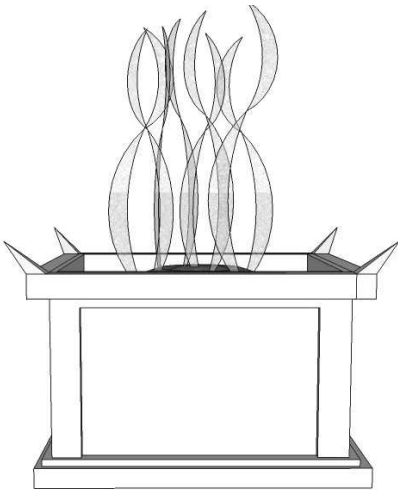

On the Day of Atonement, two young goats were brought to the Sanctuary.

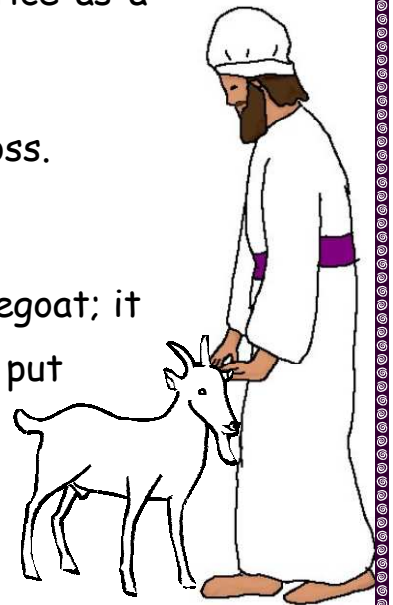

One was called the Lord's goat; it stood for _ _ _ _ . The High Priest carried some of its blood into the Most Holy Place and sprinkled it above the Mercy Seat, which was also called the Place of _ _ _ _ _ . Then the priest offered it on the Altar of Sacrifice as a sin offering for all the sins of the year.

We can come to God because Jesus died on the cross.

The other goat was called the scapegoat; it stood for _ _ _ _ . The priest put his hands on that goat and confessed Israel's sins. Then the priest sent the goat into the wilderness, never to return.

One day Satan and sin will be gone from this world, never to return.

Draw arrows to show what happened to the goats.
