

Summary: Israel wants a king. God warns that it will cause trouble but they still want a king so God chooses Saul.

Read Before: 1 Samuel 8; 9; 10; Patriarchs and Prophets p603-615; The Bible Story V3, p160-169

Aim: Gods ways are best, but sometimes He gives unto what we ask for. We should pray "Your will be done."

1. What do I already know? ☒ Listen / Talk ☐ See ☐ Do

Have you ever wanted something really badly and begged your parents until you finally got it?

If possible, share a personal story of someone who begged for something that didn't turn out to be the best.

2. Tell story / give facts. ☐ Listen / Talk ☒ See ☐ Do

Tell story with felts

3. Review / how does it apply today? ☒ Listen / Talk ☒ See ☒ Do

Look at the "Children Scenario" pictures. Discuss what the child wants, what the adult says and what might happen.

Craft Option 1: Crowns

Craft Option 2: King (Can then be used as a Christmas decoration)

Craft Option 3: Praying hands card

4. What can this become / what can we do? ☒ Listen / Talk ☐ See ☐ Do

Discuss what it means to pray "God's will be done."
