Because I love Jesus I will share, and play fair.

When Zacchaeus met Jesus he stopped being greedy and said he would pay back the people he had cheated and give half of his money to people who didn't have any.