

Pete

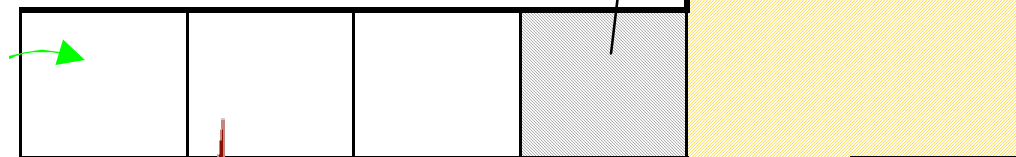

King Herod threw Peter in prison and the Church prayed for him. The night before his trial and angel woke him; the chains fell off, the prison door opened and the angel led him to the street. He went to the house where the Christians were praying for him and when Rhoda answered the door she was so excited she forgot to let him in at first.

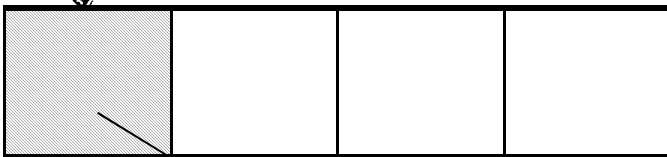

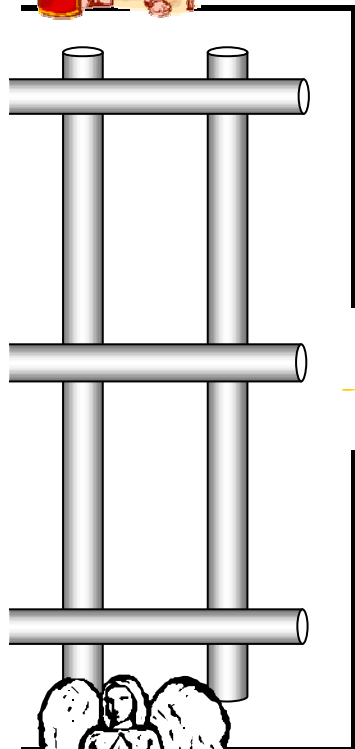

ers

Rhoda forgets to open the door.
Miss a turn

*Starting at the jail, roll the
dice and move that many squares to follow your colour arrow out and around the board to your house.*

The soldiers can't find
Peter.
Advance 3 spaces

The jail door opens by itself.
Take another turn

Peter is chained
between guards.
Go back 3 spaces

