

Burning the Magic Books

The new believers confessed their sinful practices and brought their incantation books and burned them at a public bonfire. God warns us to have nothing to do with sorcery, witches or magic (Deuteronomy 18:10), instead, we are told to "Fix your thoughts on what is true, and honourable, and right, and pure, and lovely, and admirable. Think about things that are excellent and worthy of praise." Philippians 4:8_{NLT}
