

For the Parents:

Dear Parents,

In case you would like to do some study for yourselves; here is where this Bible story is found.

Ex. 1:6-22; 2:10.

My Bible Friends Bk 1

The Bible Story Vol 2 p.75-88

Patriach & Prophets p. 241-246.

We need to teach our children that God sends His angels to watch over us at all times.

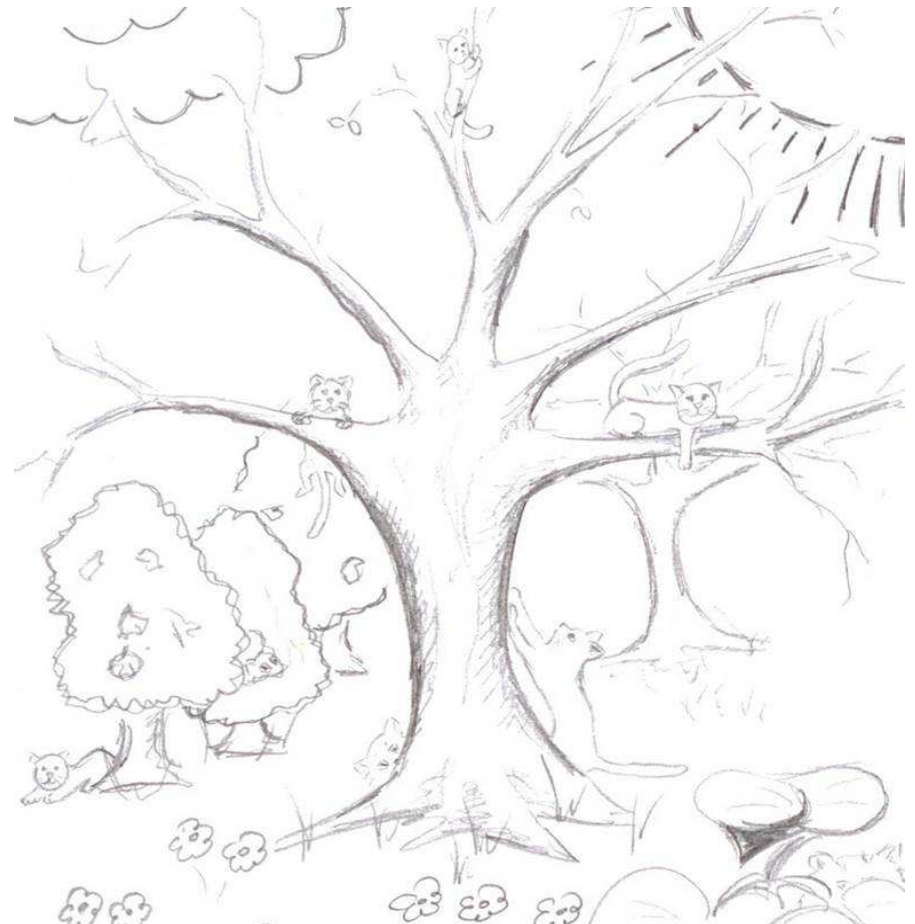

Moses' life "testifies to the importance of the work of the Christian mother. There is no other work that can equal this. To a very great extent the mother holds in her own hands the destiny of her children. She is developing minds and characters, working not alone for time, but for eternity....Parents should direct the instruction and training of their children while very young, to the end that they may be Christians. They are placed in our care to be trained, not as heirs to the throne of an earthly empire, but as kings unto God, to reign through unending ages." PP p.244

May God bless you as you teach your little ones about Him.

How many cats are hiding in this picture?

God is our...
help in trouble.

Psalms 46:1 NKJV

Friday

God had a special plan for Moses to rescue the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, and He watched over him to keep him safe.

He gave him parents to teach him all about Jesus and the things that had happened in the world.

Jesus has given you parents too, to teach you about Jesus and to teach you other Bible stories so that you can see how God has worked out his special plans for each person. God has a special plan for you too.

Thursday

Cross out the things that Satan might try to do to you, or to make you do, and tick the things God would make happen.

Sunday

A long time had passed and Joseph's family had grown very large. They were called the Israelites. Now a wicked king was ruling Egypt and he made the Israelites into slaves. Even though the Egyptians were cruel to the Israelites and made them work very hard, God continued to bless them. Then the wicked king said that all the Israelite baby boys had to be thrown into the river when they were born.

In one home there was born a little baby boy, and his father, Amram, and his mother, Jochebed, loved him. They did not want to throw him in the river.

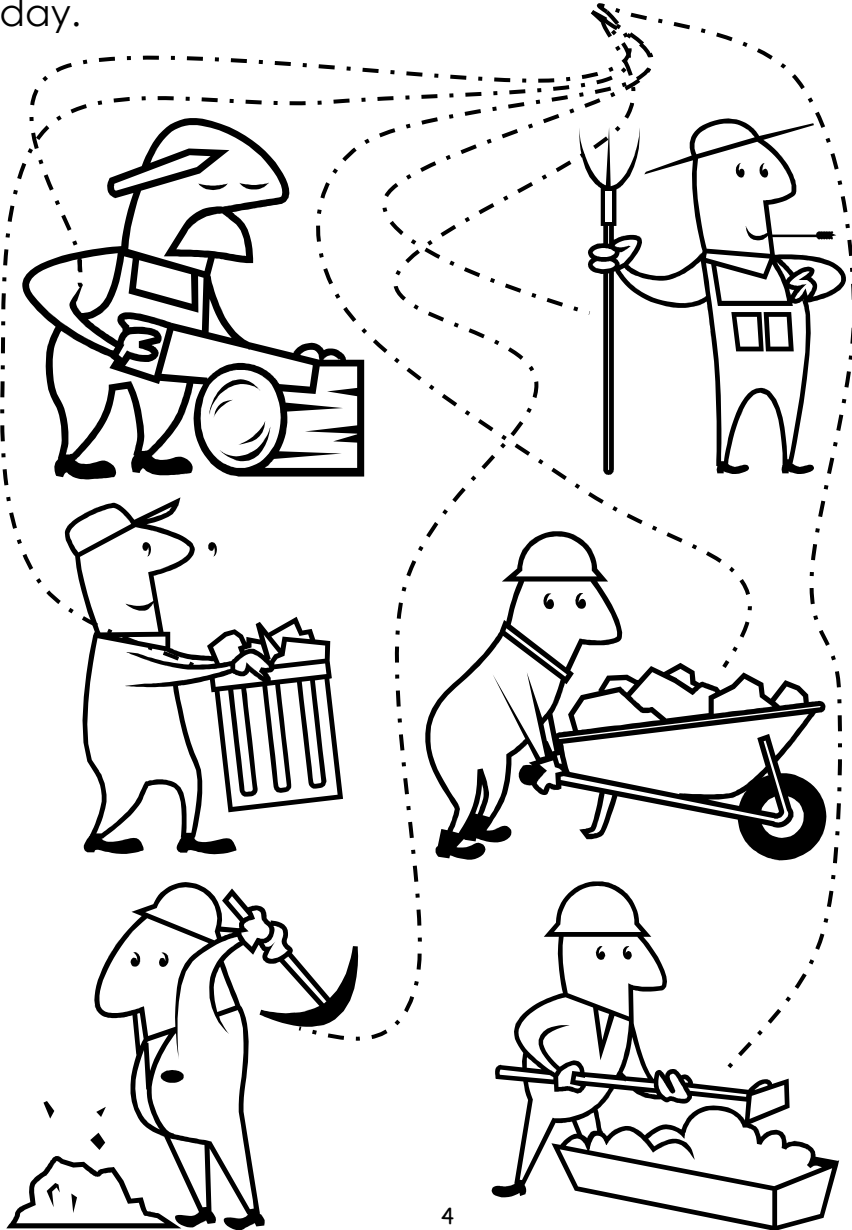

So for the first three months they hid him in the house. When he cried they would say, "Shh baby, don't cry. We don't want the soldiers to find you and throw you into the river."

But the baby grew bigger and bigger and cried louder and louder. What could they do to keep their baby safe?

Monday

Pharaoh made the Israelites into slaves. Here are some of the things they might have had to do all day.

Wednesday

Moses' Mother taught him all about God.

Tuesday

Amram and Jochebed knew that one day Moses would go to live with the Princess.

Every day Jochebed would tell him stories about how God made the world; the first sin; Noah and the flood; and how Joseph came to live in Egypt. She taught him about the promise God had made to Eve that one day Jesus would come and die for our sins and be raised again so that we could have a new earth. She also told him that God had promised that one day soon he would send someone to deliver them out of Egypt.

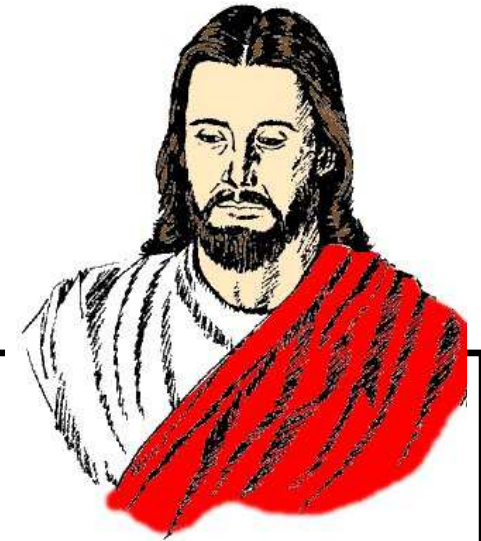

Amram and Jochebed taught Moses that he needed to pray and worship Jesus every day.

When he was twelve years old Moses went to live in the palace with the princess. We need to remember to worship and pray to Jesus every day just like Moses did.

Tuesday

God loved Moses and his family and God loves you and your family too. Draw a picture of your family.

Wednesday

Then Jesus gave Moses' mother an idea - she could make a little basket boat from the reeds growing by the river and use mud and pitch to make sure no water could get in.

That is just what mother did. When the basket boat was all finished mother made a nice bed in it for her baby, and very early in the morning mother and big sister Miriam took the basket boat with the baby inside and went to the river.

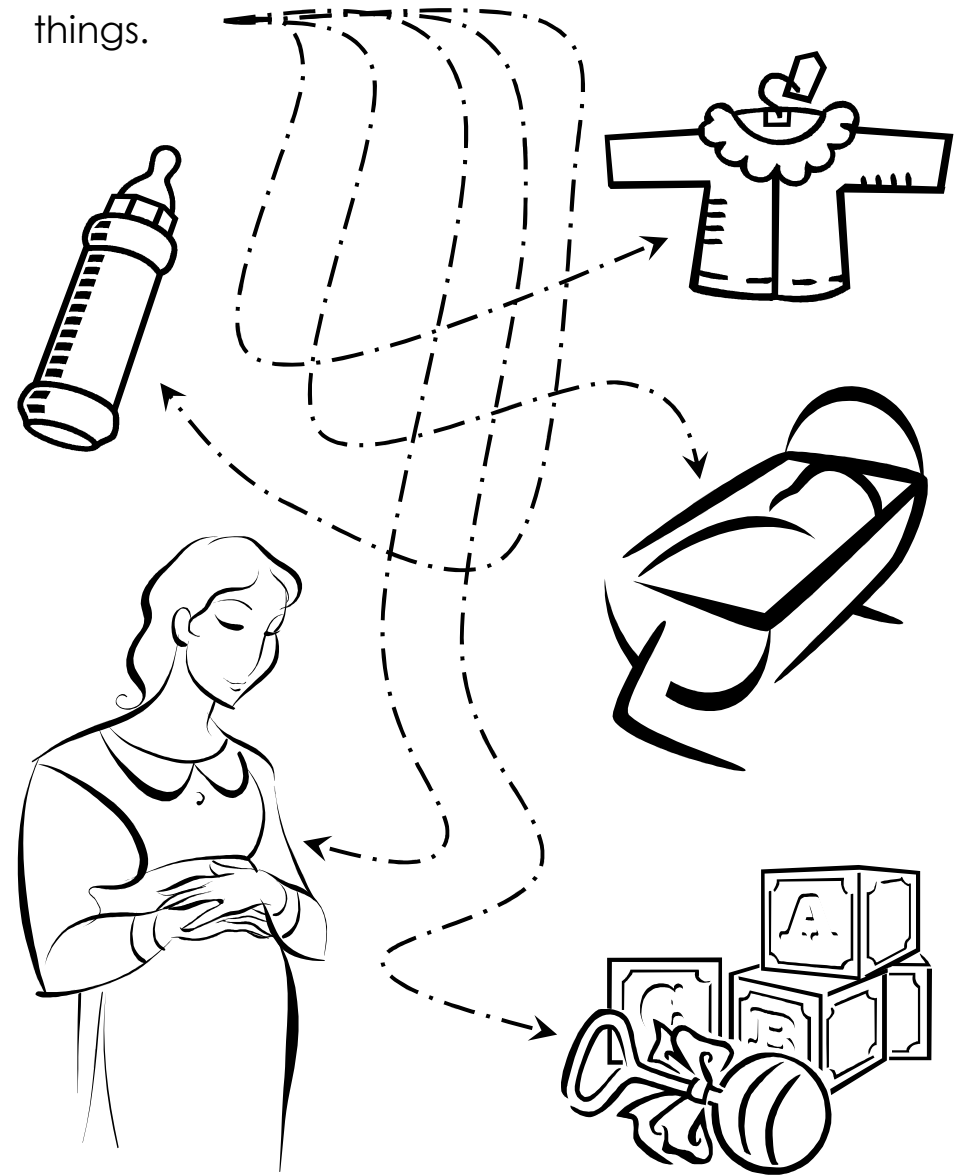

Mother set the basket down among the reeds and she went home. Miriam stayed hiding in the reeds to see what would happen.

Angels that she couldn't see were also there watching over the baby in his basket boat. God had big plans for that special baby and was keeping watch over him.

Monday

God looked after Moses and He will look after you. He will make sure you have everything you need. Follow the lines to see some of these things.

Sunday

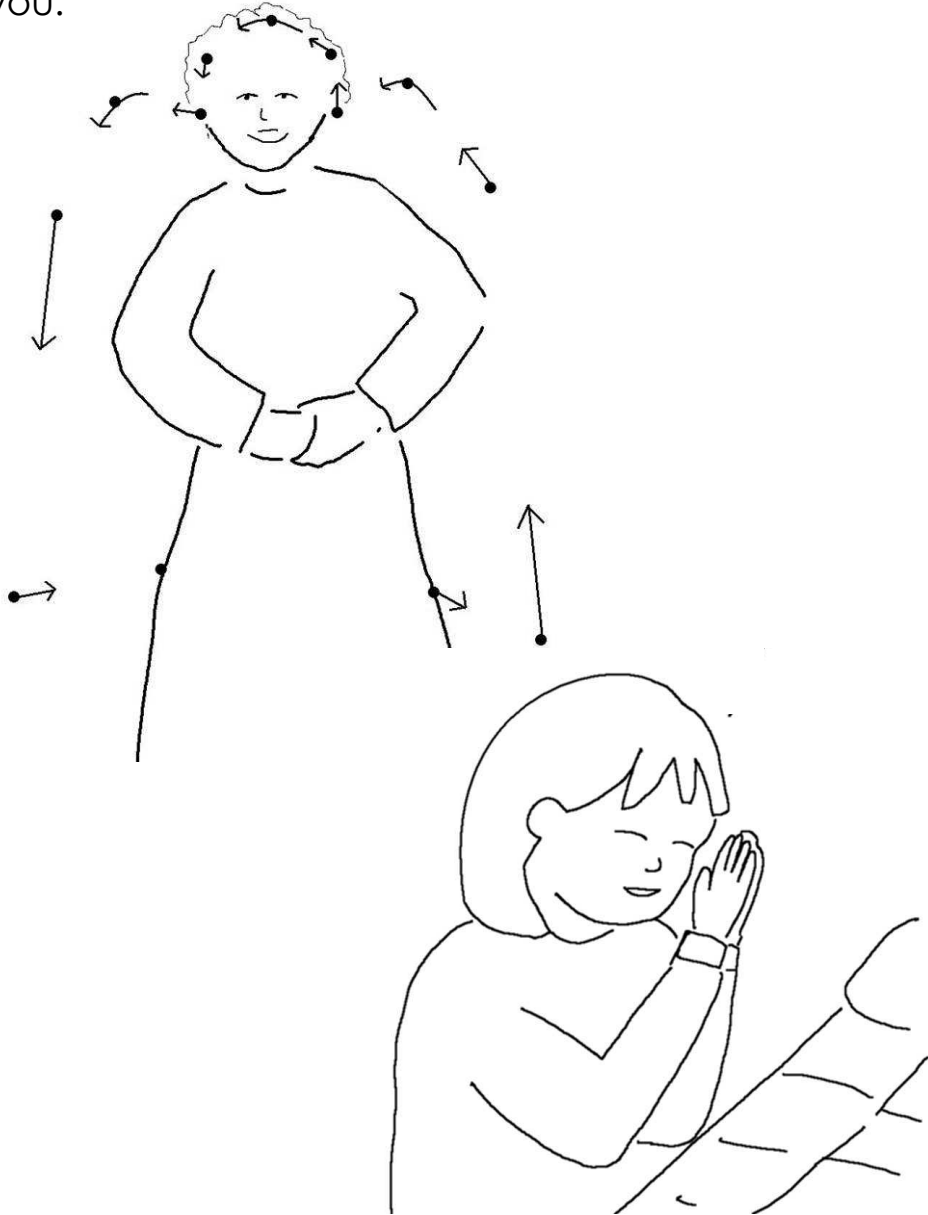

Thursday

Friday

Satan will try and make things hard for you too. But God says that if you ask Him, He will look after you.

Sabbath

A little later Miriam heard someone coming down the path to the river. When Miriam peeked through the reeds she saw it was the princess and some of her maids.

The princess noticed the basket boat and asked her maid to fetch it. When she opened the lid the baby started crying. "Oh," said the Princess, "He must be one of the Hebrew children."

When Miriam saw that the Princess liked the baby, she came out of her hiding place and asked if the Princess would like her to get someone to help take care of the baby.

The Princess said, "Yes." Miriam hurried home to get her mother. When mother arrived the Princess said, "Look after him till I send for him. I will pay you wages. I have called him Moses." Mother and Miriam hurried home with baby Moses. Now they knew the king's soldiers could not hurt him anymore.
