

Let us ...love... in deed and in truth.
1 John 3:18 NASB

For the Parents:

Dear Parents,

In case you would like to do some study for yourselves; here is where this Bible story is found:

2 Kings 4:8-37

My Bible Friends book 6

Bible Story book 5 p74-78

Prophets and Kings p237-240

We can teach our children that Jesus wants us to be kind to our friends and siblings, and others with whom we have contact. When we treat others with kindness they are more likely to treat us with kindness too.

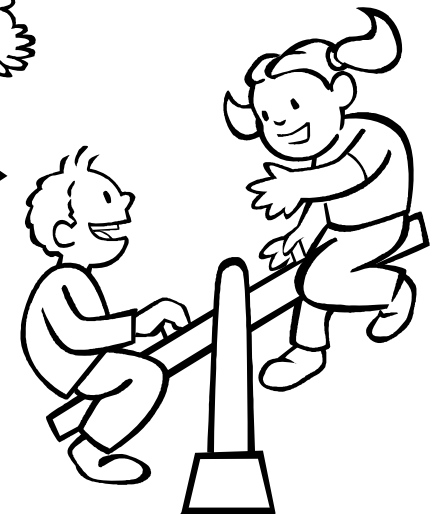

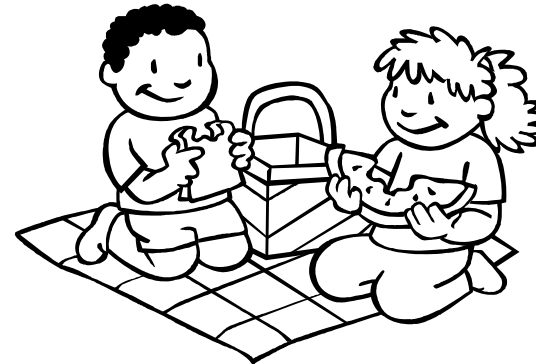

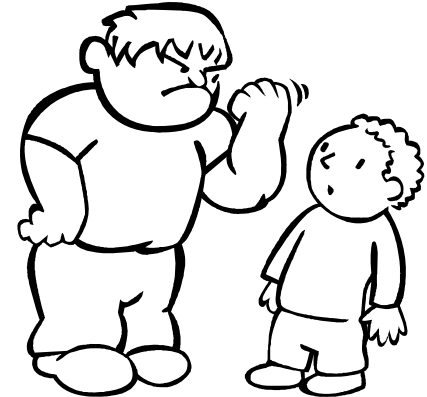

If you are still making a book for your child add some pictures of children doing kind deeds.

May God bless you as you teach your little ones about Him.

A Kind Lady

Sabbath

Colour in the children who are being kind.

Sunday

As the prophet Elisha walked past the house the kind Woman of Shunem invited him inside to have something to eat and drink. Prophet Elisha was tired and glad to rest for a short while before continuing on his way.

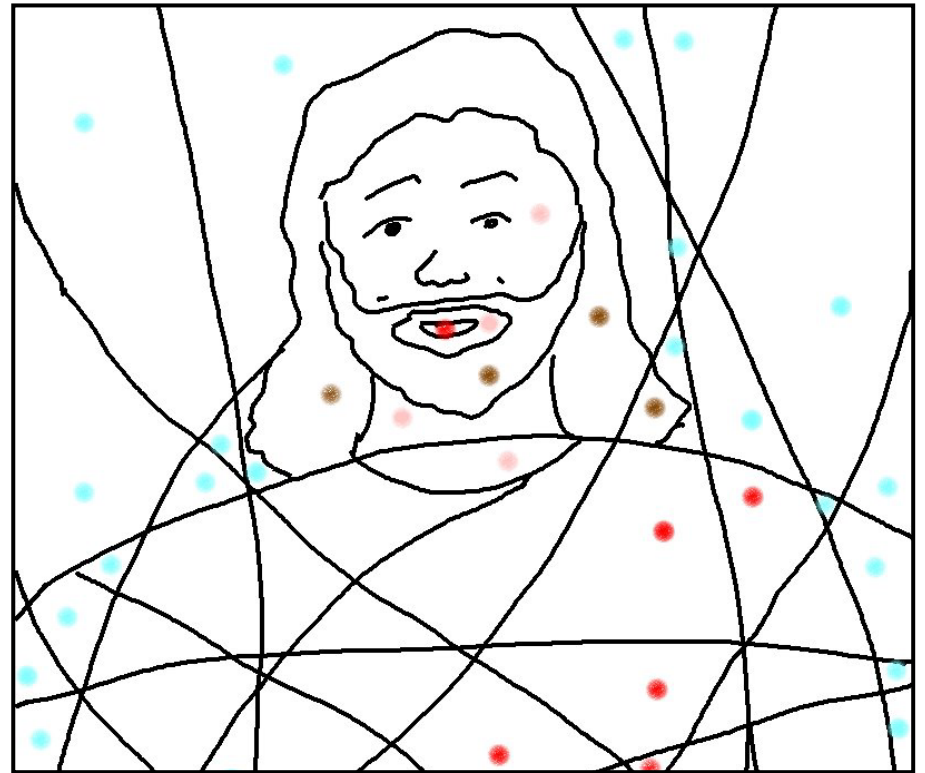

Later, the Woman of Shunem said to her husband, "Why can't we build a room on the roof of our house for the prophet to stay in when he comes past?" Her husband thought it was a good idea so they built a room on the roof of their house and put some furniture in it.

Prophet Elisha liked the room and he wanted to do something to say thank you. His helper said that Woman of Shunem had no children and so the prophet told her that this time next year she would have a baby boy and that is exactly what happened! A little baby boy came to join their family.

Tuesday

Wednesday

The baby grew into a boy and one day while he was helping his father in the fields he became very sick and died. His mother was very sad but she had a plan. She laid her son on Prophet Elisha's bed and then saddled a donkey and set off to find the prophet. She told the prophet what had happened to her little boy and asked him to come.

Prophet Elisha went up into his room on the roof of the house. He closed the door and knelt down and prayed; then he lay on top of the boy putting his face on the boy's face and his arms on the boy's arms. The boy's body began to get warm again. Then he knelt and prayed, and again lay on top of the boy. This time the boy sneezed seven times and opened his eyes. Prophet Elisha opened the door and called to the Woman of Shunem. She came in and was so happy as she said thank you to Elisha then picked up her son and gave him a great big hug. Jesus had made her boy well and they were a happy family again.
