

Believe in the Lord... and you will be saved. Acts 16:31 NASB

For the Parents:

Dear Parents,

In case you would like to do some study for yourselves; here is where this Bible story is found:

Acts 16:12-40

The Bible Story Vol 10 p. 81-88

Acts of the Apostles p. 211-220

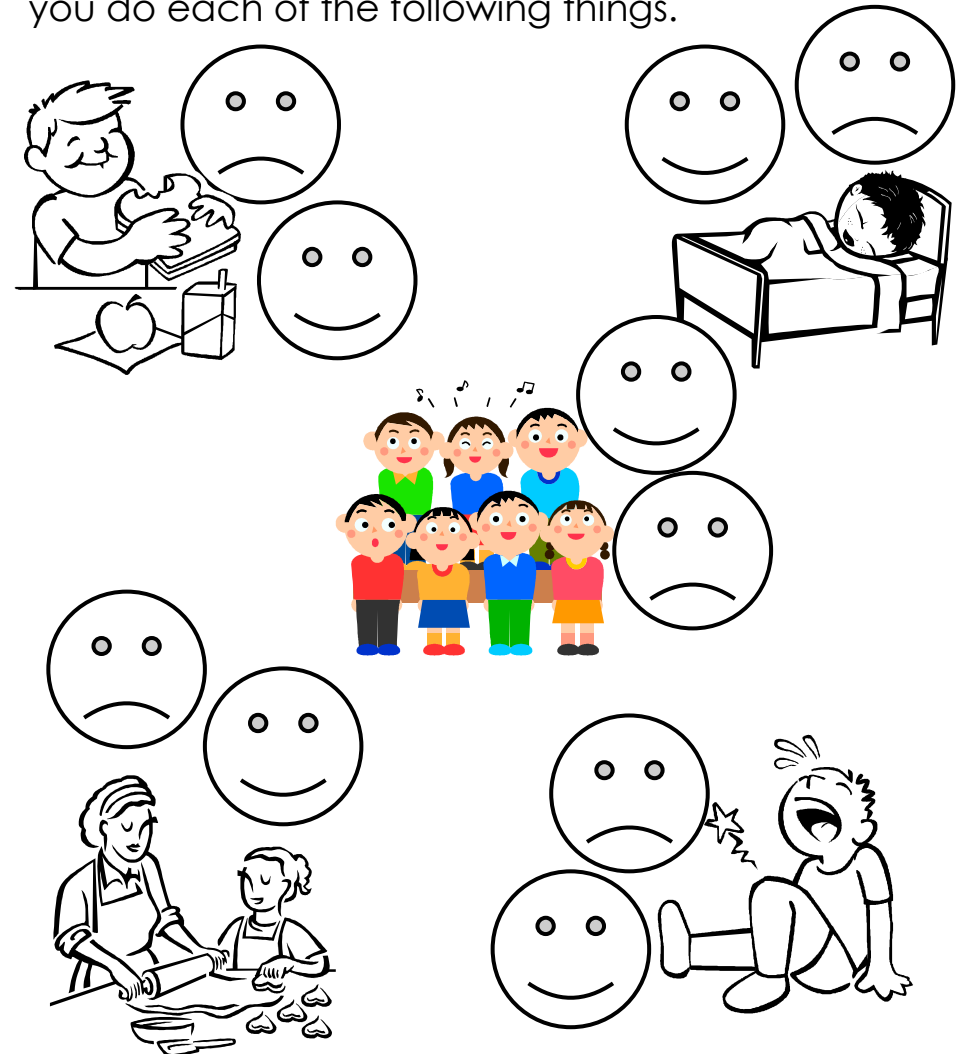

"There are few means more effective for fixing His words in memory than repeating them in song. And such song has wonderful power. It has power to subdue rude and uncultivated natures; power to quicken thought and to awaken sympathy, to promote harmony of action, and to banish gloom and foreboding that destroy courage and weaken effort.

It is one of the most effective means of impressing the heart with spiritual truth. How often to the soul hard presses and ready to despair, memory recalls some word of God's—the long-forgotten burden of a childhood son,—and temptations lose their power, life takes on new meaning and new purpose, and courage and gladness are imparted to other souls!" Singing in Jail

Sabbath

Colour the face which shows how you feel when you do each of the following things.

Sunday

Paul and Silas had been going as missionaries from town to town telling people about Jesus. One day while they were walking in the city of Philippi, a slave girl who worked as a fortune-teller shouted, "These men are servants of the Most High God."

Day after day this happened until Paul turned and said to the demon in her, "In the name of Jesus Christ, come out of her."

Instantly, the demon left her and she was quiet.

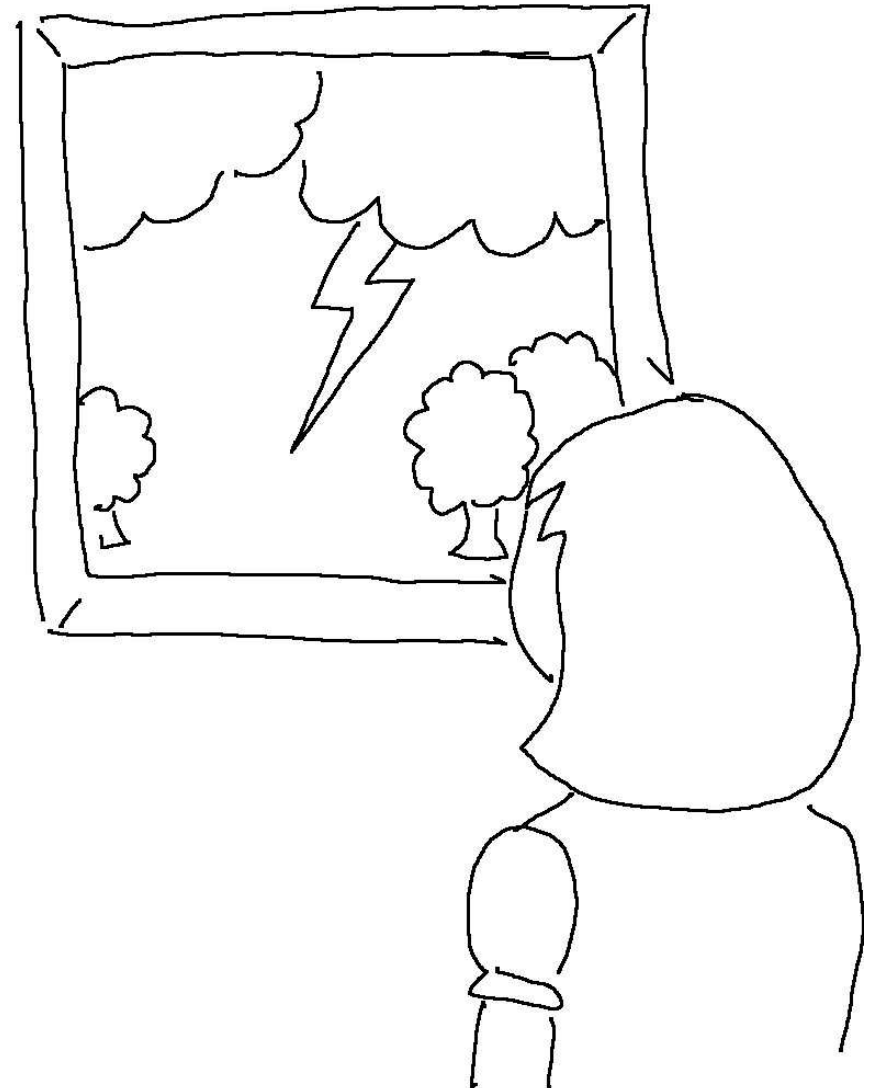

Her masters were angry because they couldn't make any more money from her so they took Paul and Silas to the Judge.

Paul and Silas were beaten and thrown in jail where their ankles were fastened between two boards of wood; it was very uncomfortable and it hurt them a lot. But instead of complaining like most people would, Paul and Silas started praying and singing to God. The other prisoners and guards were amazed to hear them singing.

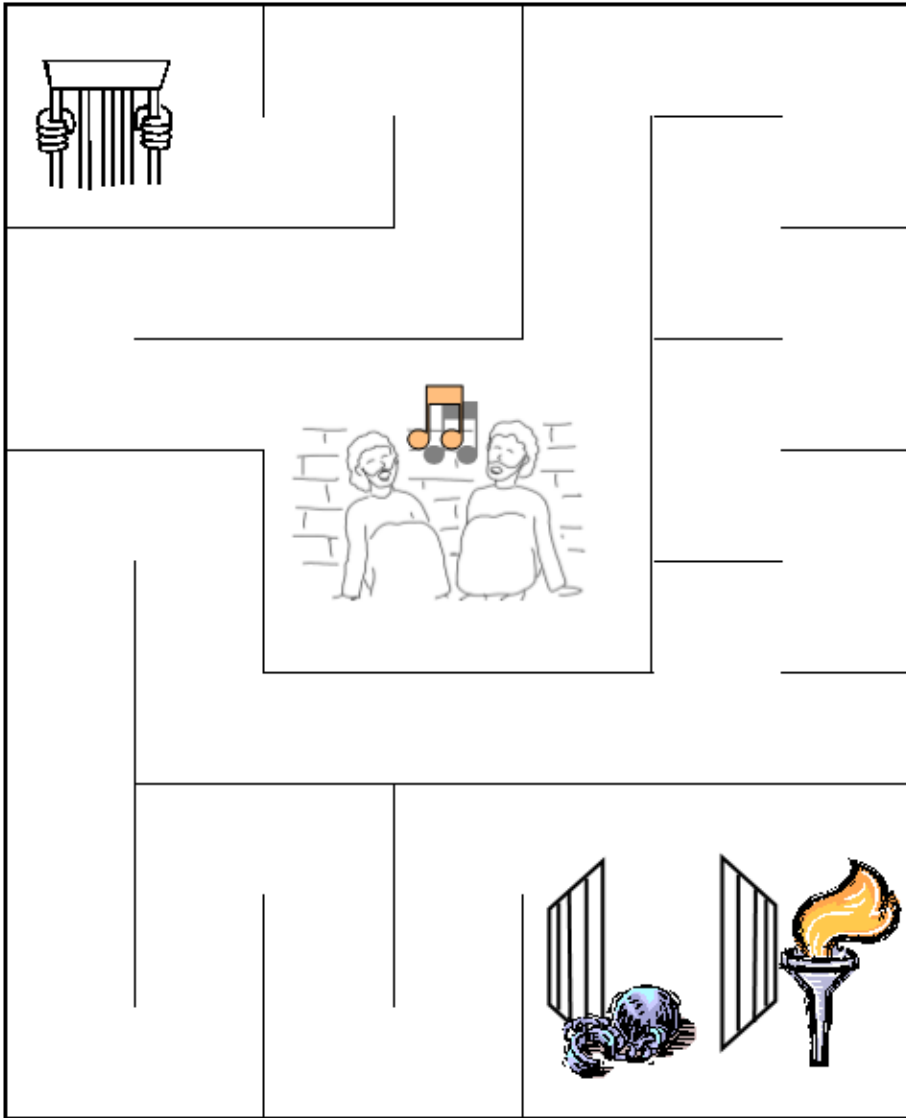

Friday

Paul could sing while he was in jail because he trusted Jesus. You can trust Jesus too. When you are scared or sad, singing or saying a Bible verse can help you remember and trust in Jesus.

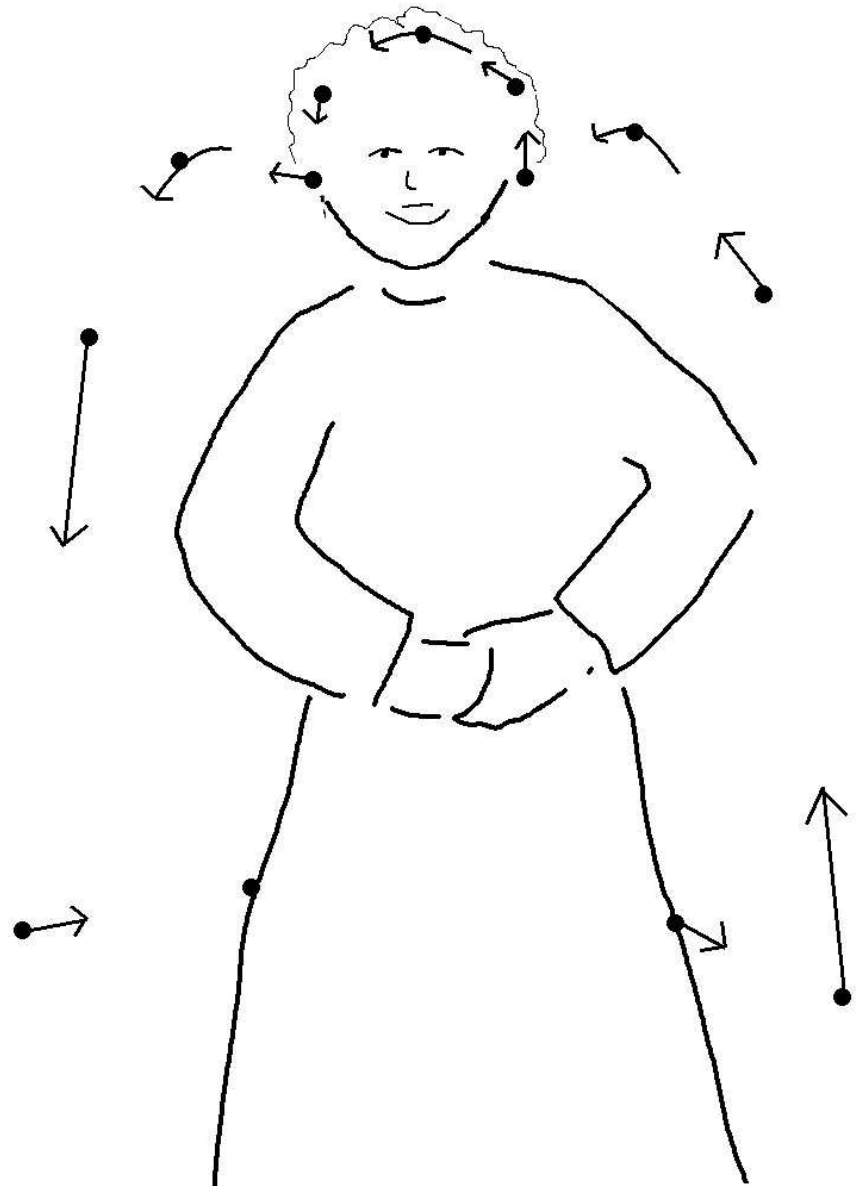

Thursday

How did Paul and Silas get out of jail? Find a way from the jail through the maze to find out.

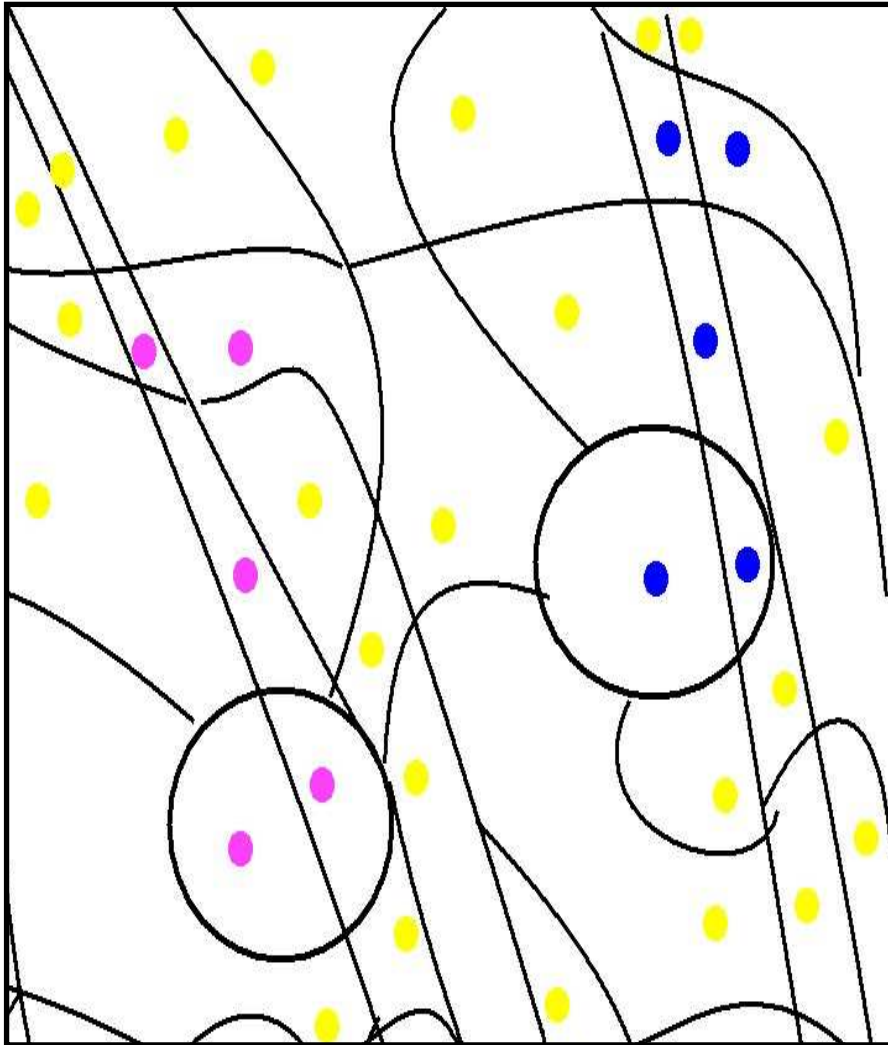

Monday

Why were Paul and Silas singing in prison? Who was with them? Use the arrows to join the dots to find out.

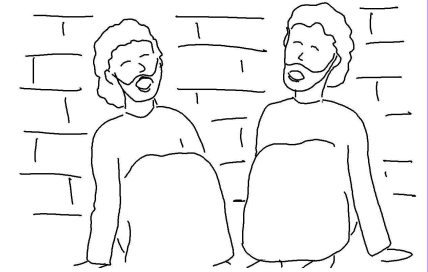

Tuesday

Singing is a really good way for you to learn and remember things about God.

Wednesday

At midnight there was a big earthquake. The doors of the prison flew open; the wood and chains that were holding the prisoners fell off them! The earthquake woke the jailer up and he thought all his prisoners had escaped, but Paul shouted to him, "Don't worry! We are all here."

The jailer called for lights and ran into the prison. He brought Paul and Silas out and asked, "What must I do to be saved."

They replied, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and you will be saved."

While the jailer took care of their wounds and fed them, they told him and his family all about Jesus, and in the morning, the jailer and his family were baptised.

When we are scared we can pray and ask Jesus to be with us. When we sing it helps us to remember that Jesus loves us and cares for us all the time.
